

RULES.

SCHOOL OF MEDICINE,

SHEFFIELD.

UNIVERSITY
OF LEEDS
BROTHERTON

RULES AND BYE-LAWS
OF THE
SHEFFIELD
SCHOOL OF MEDICINE.

OCTOBER 9TH, 1875.

SHEFFIELD:
LEADER AND SONS, PRINTERS, INDEPENDENT OFFICE.
1877.

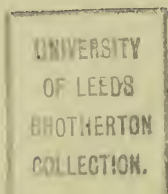

RULES AND BYE-LAWS.

1.—The name of the School shall be the "SHEFFIELD SCHOOL OF MEDICINE."

2.—The staff of the School shall consist of the Lecturers for the time being.

3.—The management of the School shall be vested in a Council, consisting of the President, Secretary, the Treasurer, and four other members, all of whom shall be elected by the Lecturers at the annual meeting. Three shall form a quorum, and be competent to act.

4.—Each and every Member of Council shall be separately proposed and seconded by two Lecturers present at the meeting, and the election shall take place as follows, viz., each voter shall privately write upon a slip of paper the name of the candidate for whom he votes, and shall deposit the slip in the ballot-box, which shall be examined when the voting is completed, by the Chairman, who shall then declare the name of the successful candidate. The President, Secretary, and Treasurer shall be elected separately, and by a show of hands, if there be only one candidate proposed ; and in order to save time, the voting slips for the four other members of Council shall be collected at one and the same time ; but no slip shall be admitted which contains more than one name, nor shall any voter vote for more than four names, or give more than one vote to any one candidate.

5.—The appointment of Lecturers is vested in the Council, who shall announce all vacancies to each Lecturer by circular ; and no appointment shall take place except at a meeting of the Council held at least seven clear days after the vacancy has been so announced.

6.—The annual general meeting of Lecturers shall be held during the month of July, at which the accounts of the preceding year shall be presented, the office-bearers for the ensuing year elected, and any other general business transacted.

7.—The Council shall summon a special general meeting whenever they deem it necessary, or when called upon so to do by a requisition in writing, signed by at least six Lecturers.

8.—No schedule shall be signed by a Lecturer unless previously approved by the Council.

9.—A book shall be kept by each Lecturer, in which the attendance of the Students on his lectures shall be recorded.

10.—The Council have power to expel any Student who may misconduct himself.

11.—Every Student shall, on admission to the School, be required to read over and subscribe to such rules as the Council may frame for the government of the School.

12.—The management of the dissecting-room and the drawing up of rules for regulating dissections shall be entrusted to the Lecturers on Anatomy and the Demonstrators ; and a copy of such rules and bye-laws, after being approved by the Council, shall be placed in the dissecting-room.

13.—No alteration of or addition to the foregoing rules shall be made, except at a general meeting specially called for the purpose, of which meeting at least fourteen clear days' notice shall be given by circular to each Lecturer, and said circular shall specify the particular alterations or additions proposed to be made.

14.—The Lecturer whom the Council has appointed to be licensed shall only hold the license so long as the Council for the time being approves.

